What others say

“Excellent mediator” - Lupton Fawcett Solicitors

“Boris managed to strike the perfect tone to push this one to a resolution and made the right call in getting the directors together for a non-legal discussion at the critical point of the mediation when a walk-away looked the most likely outcome. This decision was instrumental in successfully steering the parties to settlement.”

“I would have no hesitation in recommending him to others and would certainly use him again.” - Flaxmere Consultancy

“Boris Dapaah was meticulous in respect of his knowledge of the issues to be mediated. He communicated very well with all parties and showed great patience and understanding.” - Solicitor

“I found Mr Dapaah to be a very professional and thoughtful mediator. I would highly recommend his services.” - Elysium Chambers

General Information

Boris is a CEDR accredited, independent commercial and civil mediator. As a solicitor, and partner of a law firm, Boris has extensive experience of civil and commercial disputes.

His attention to detail, together with his experience of running a business, makes him well suited to mediations where a deep understanding of financial matters and commercial considerations is important.

Before qualifying as a solicitor, Boris worked as a software engineer on large logistics and financial projects. He would, therefore, be ideal for disputes involving information technology and project mediation.

Boris has a friendly, approachable style, and his enthusiasm for assisting parties to reach a negotiated settlement underpins his commitment to mediation.
